Clearly uses at least one major idea from one of the designated readings and uses it correctly. Shows that you know your stuff.	Clearly uses course material but incorrectly or in a cursory fashion (for instance, merely mentions something without using it).	Doesn't show any significant engagement with course material OR incorrectly applies more than 1 concept.

Seriously misinterprets the assignment or otherwise fails to respond to the question.
Quality of Writing	Easy and fun to read. Really well written.	Readable, concise, and clear. Could have one or two small improvements.
